A statement about Biogen Political Action Committee

January 13, 2021
Following last week's deeply concerning events in Washington DC, we are suspending all political donations to allow a thorough review of our political contribution criteria and policies. Biogen supports the rule of law and democratic process and calls for a peaceful transition of power.